

We Should Be Recyclin'

Are you ready, are you ready,
For a little bit a reggae?
Are you ready, are you ready to sing?
We all gonna sing about recyclin'.

From an empty Weetabix box, to a smelly old pair of socks.
Don't just fling 'em in the bin, we should be recyclin'!
Plastic containers, magazines and newspapers,
Don't just fling 'em in the bin, we should be recyclin'!

We want flowers and trees, birds and bees,
Grass on the hill, but we don't want landfill.
Beautiful streams and lakes, these are things to celebrate.

Yeah, yeah,
Yeah, yeah.

Are you ready to do this?
Are you playin' your part?
We can do this together,
We can make a great start!

Are you ready, are you ready,
For a bit more reggae?
Are you ready, are you ready to sing?
We all gonna sing about recyclin'.

Glass bottles, either brown or green, just make sure they're clean.
Don't just fling 'em in the bin, we should be recyclin'!
Broken spectacles, dodgy electricals,

Don't just fling 'em in the bin, we should be recyclin'!

We want flowers and trees, birds and bees,
Grass on the hill, but we don't want landfill.
Beautiful streams and lakes, these are things to celebrate.

Yeah, yeah,
Yeah, yeah.

Are you ready to do this?
Are you playin' your part?
We can do this together,
We can make a great start!

Are you ready, are you ready,
For a little bit a reggae?
Are you ready, are you ready to sing?
We all gonna sing about recyclin'.
We all gonna sing about recyclin'.
We all gonna sing about recyclin'.

Yeah, yeah, recyclin'!
Yeah, yeah
Recyclin'!
