Dear Parents and Carers,

Strike action by members of the National Education Union

I am writing to you about forthcoming strike action by the National Education Union (NEU), one of the main teaching trade unions. You may have seen coverage of this in the news and I wanted to inform you about the impact this is likely to have at our school. There are two more national strikes planned on

- Thursday 27th April 2023
- Tuesday 2nd May 2023

The NEU has posted a document for parents, carers and grandparents that explains their reasons for taking strike action. It can be found at <https://neu.org.uk/media/24511/view> if you wish to read it.

I have been in discussions over the last week with our school's union representatives to look at the impact on our school. Due to the large number of staff intending to strike on Thursday 27th April, I have conducted a Risk Assessment, consulted the Governing Body and agreed to close the school on the grounds of health and safety and safeguarding. A decision regarding Tuesday 2nd May will be advised as soon as possible.

SCHOOL CLOSED – THURSDAY 27TH APRIL

Parents of children entitled to Free School Meals will be provided with a meal to take home the day before.

School's Out @ Trinity will be closed on this day. Any sessions booked will be credited to the next half term.

Clearly this is a difficult situation, which will cause some disruption. I would ask you, however, to be understanding. A national strike by teachers is very unusual. Taking strike action is not something that any teacher would undertake lightly. Those on strike will have thought long and hard about their decision and will also lose pay for the days that they are on strike.

Yours sincerely,

Jill R Wright
