Headteacher's Message

Thank you to those of you who attended our SENCo Parent Information Session with Miss Horrocks this week. Keep your eye out for future drop ins coming up.

Thank you so much for all of your efforts for World Book Day — your children looked amazing and had some brilliant conversations about the book characters they had come as! There has been so much good stuff going on in school around World Book Day, not least our KS2 children visiting Brookwood Way or The Hub Nursery to read with the younger children, a real treat. Book and Breakfast proved as popular as ever, thank you for coming along. I must thank all the staff who helped and Miss Corrigan and Mrs Kenyon for their organisation of all our World Book Day activities. Thanks also to all those staff who ensure our libraries are fabulous, inspiring places for the children.

Year 3 are very excited about their performance at King George's Hall and I look forward to seeing them and hearing their fabulous singing next Thursday. It's always a real treat and a proud moment to see our children representing Trinity so beautifully.

Next Friday is Comic Relief Day and given that there has been so much busyness and hard work for World Book Day, we have decided to try something a bit different for Comic Relief this time and have a CRAZY HAIR DAY! Please use your imagination to create fabulous hairstyles, use fancy hair accessories etc, use hats or wigs but please make sure we can get back to having super smart hairstyles for school the following Monday. You will be able to make a donation via Parentpay or bring in a cash donation for Comic Relief to support the incredible work they undertake.
