Mrs Wright's Weekly Update

Thanks to the PFA

Thank you to the PFA for providing such fun times for the children at the discos this week. I know how much our children enjoy them and how much hard work goes into making them happen so it is very greatly appreciated. It was lovely to have feedback from one of our parent volunteers that the children were so very well mannered, well done boys and girls! Good behaviour does get you noticed!

Year 3 Roman Day

Year 3 have all enjoyed their History learning about the Romans this half term and had a spectacular Roman Day this week. Thank you to you for providing costumes to get them in the mood and to the staff for their work in planning such great activities for the children to enhance and embed their learning in this area.

Resilience

A huge well done to Mrs Smith and to all of the children at Brookwood Way, the staff and the parents for their resilience in worship this morning. It was wonderful to see everyone react so calmly and sensibly and carry on with our Rewards Worship despite one of our friends being unwell. Very apt that my Headteacher's Award was for Resilience – you all deserve a sticker!

Next half term

Life in all its fullness will be in full force for the second half of the summer term, as it is always such a busy, busy time (as you will see from the dates for your diary).

When we return after the half term holiday we have a teacher training day and so children come back to school on Tuesday 2nd June.

I do hope the sunshine will make the half term break a wonderful time for all, some time to be outside in nature and appreciate God's creation.

As we move into hopefully nicer weather please ensure your children have their water bottles and sunhats when we return to school. Please also apply suncream before the school day.
